

12th Night Winter Baking Competition

Sponsored by the Royal Baker

Youth Competition

Calling all youth of the Kingdom, get out your tools and create a sculpture out of Marzipan.

Your Marzipan creation should be Atlantian based, a spike or maybe her Majesties favorite animal (Think furry creatures with long ears!) , or something winter related. You can paint it, use any decorations you like! Documentation not required but encouraged. Commercially prepared Marzipan is allowed, but extra points for homemade.

Adult competition.

Winter Celebration Cakes.

The theme for the sponsored baking competition is "German Winter Celebration Cakes"

German Cakes that are "stollen" type cake filled with dried fruit and nuts are encouraged . Documentation is not required but highly encouraged.

(worth 30 points)

The judging form is available on the 12th Night webpage .

 Please make a list and post the ingredients that you use for your creation. So that those who have allergies will be aware.*
